

Pub Crawls Around Britain. The London Monopoly Pub Crawl. Walk Three - Marylebone Station, Euston Road, Kings Cross Station, Pentonville Road & The Angel Islington

Have you ever tried to arrange a stag or hen do in a city or town that you are not familiar with? Do you fancy visiting some different pubs in your town but don't know the area very well? Do you fancy a country walk, but with plenty of liquid refreshment along the way? Do you want a pub crawl for students with only pubs that offer discounts? There are many pub guides out there, and there are many walking guides, but there is not a lot out there on the great British pub crawl. The Pub Crawls Around Britain series is aimed at filling this gap. We hope that you enjoy this e-book and that you will look for other books in the range for your next trip. New routes are being added all the time so keep an eye out for new ones as they appear. If you want to contribute a route, then email steve.caron@jmdmedia.co.uk with your idea and he will be in touch. The London Monopoly Pub Crawl This is a chance to get to know London and visit five very interesting pubs situated on or adjacent to the London Monopoly board layout. By visiting these pubs it allows you to visit some of London's famous landmarks, tourist attractions and some nice historic areas. All the pubs recommended in this pub crawl have been independently visited and assessed. No payment has been made to include the pub in the crawl. Other pubs on the board sequence can be visited by using one of the other four Pub Crawls in this five part series. We promote sensible drinking. Therefore, when visiting any of these pubs or taverns please enjoy yourselves and experience the pleasure they offer. Finally, in true Monopoly style, you don't need to be a Rich Uncle Pennybags to drink in or at any of these pubs. The Walk Itself: This is a linear walk that covers a reasonable distance and will take about an hour. The walk includes five pubs to visit en route and covers a total of about 3.0 miles in distance. It starts at Marylebone Railway Station and then takes you past Baker Street, Madame Tussauds and Regents Park. It also takes in the three famous railway stations situated along Euston Road (I.e. Euston, St Pancras International and the recently redeveloped Kings Cross). The British Library and Platform 9 3/4 to Hogwarts are also en route and can be visited on this walk. Finally, after a trek up Pentonville Road the crawl finally concludes at a well known theatre pub in Islington. The distance between the pub on Euston Road and Kings Cross (Doric Arch and Parcel Yard) is not very far. However, a visit to the British Library and/or a good look at the spectacular architecture of St Pancras station between pub visits should provide a good break between drinks. All the pubs visited offer a good beer selection and serve food. Children are allowed in all the pubs during daytime hours, so this crawl is family friendly. A couple of the pubs have limited access due to an upper floor bar or elevated drinking and dining areas, so wheelchair users would struggle to complete the route. This is a walk suitable for both Weekdays and Weekends. The Monopoly itinerary includes two of the four railway Stations on the board (Marylebone and Kings Cross) and all three of the Light blues (Euston Road, Pentonville Road and the Angel Islington) located on side one of the board. Some of the pubs are close together so in between pub visits its worth taking the time to explore the nearby attractions that have been identified.
