

Federal Records Relating to Civil Rights in the Post-world War II Era (Reference Information Paper 113)

This reference information paper provides descriptions of the records of Federal agencies, commissions, and courts that formulated civil rights guidelines, programs, and judicial decisions. The records cover the span of time between civil rights initiatives undertaken by the Harry S. Truman administration, 1945-52, through the reorganization plan of civil rights programs directed by the Jimmy Carter administration, 1977-81. The focus herein is on textual records in archival facilities in the Washington, DC, area, the regional archives, and the Presidential libraries of the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA).
